Phil Heasley Announces Candidacy for State Representative Seat

Butler, Pennsylvania - Local entrepreneur Phil Heasley has announced his candidacy for the upcoming special election on March 17, 2020 to fill the empty seat formerly held by Tedd Nesbitt.

Residing in Center Township Mr. Heasley is a lifelong resident of the district. Phil attended Center Township Elementary School and graduated from Butler High School before attending Edinboro University. Phil spent two years at Edinboro University before returning home to manage his family's business, Butler Gymnastics Club located on Rt. 68 in Butler.

Phil's campaign will be based on being a representative voice for every resident of the district from Center Township to Sandy Creek Township. Phil humbly asks the people of the community for the opportunity to represent everyone from all walks of life throughout the district. Phil aims to represent all Pennsylvanians against the Washington culture and to work for everyone regardless of political affiliation.

Information regarding an upcoming kick off event will soon be available via the candidates website and facebook page.
